ERIC NEWMAN RECEIVES FARRAN ZERBE AWARD

The association's highest award, the Farran Zerbe Award, was awarded to Eric P. Newman, at the annual banquet at the 78th anniversary convention in Philadelphia. The official citation, accompanying the award, best tells the reasons for Newman's selection.

"By the authority of the Board of Governors of the American Numismatic Association, I take great pleasure in informing you that you have been awarded the Farran Zerbe Award for distinguished service to the Association.

"You are known best to our membership and the entire numismatic fraternity as the author of many scholarly books and articles on early American numismatics — to name a few: Coinage for Colonial Virginia; The 1776 Continental Coinage; The Continental Dollar Meets Its Maker; Counterfeit Continental Currency Goes to War; Poor Richard's Mottoes on Coins; and Varieties of the Fugio Cent. Both the Fantastic 1804 Dollar (co-authored with Ken Bressett), and The Early Paper Money of America, are considered standard references.

"We of the ANA have been extremely fortunate that you have seen fit to share your knowledge with fellow members through the pages of The Numismatist. Your well researched articles have won for you four first, three second, and three honorary awards in Heath Literary competition. Most of the numismatic publications have carried your byline at one time or another.

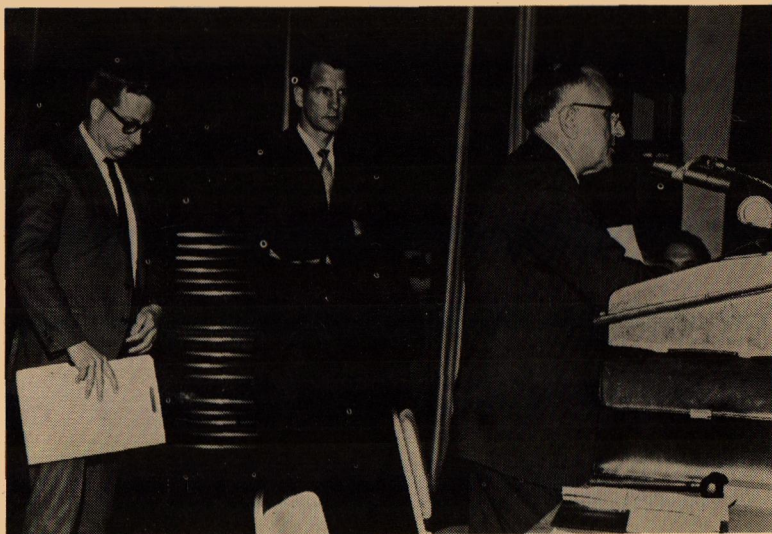

"As founder of an educational society for numismatic research, publication and exhibition that bears your name, you are quite active in public education and forums at all levels. You were a speaker at the 1961 ANA Educational Forum and you have taken an active part in the war against forgeries, counterfeits, and other spurious imitations of numismatic items.

"In 1964 you were awarded the ANA Medal of Merit, as a distinguished numismatist. You were elected to the panel of electors of the Numismatic Hall of Fame in 1968. You were also awarded the Nathan Gold Memorial Award, sponsored by Numismatic News for scientific study of United States paper money.

"During the past week, the Board of Governors was most happy to add your name to the distinguished and growing list of life members of this association. It does us honor to present the highest award of the American Numismatic Association to you, Eric P. Newman, for services to our association in particular, and the hobby in general. — signed, Arthur Sipe, president.

THE PHILADELPHIA STORY

78th Anniversary Convention Provides Excitement, An Election, Pomp and Ceremony

The 78th anniversary convention of the American Numismatic Association is now a matter of record, but what a record! First, for the official journal, 1969 was an election year and, as one newspaper noted, "a misguided computer in a Colorado Springs bank made a game of musical board-of-governors chairs out of this year's election, and before the music stopped, several apparent victors discovered the seats were all taken."

The official guest list, thanks to the dedication of the new United States Mint at Philadelphia, included mint directors from all parts of the globe. Private industry was not to be outdone by official Washington, either. Following the dedication of the new mint by twenty-four hours, the Franklin Mint, the world's largest private mint, held their cornerstone ceremonies for their new plant in nearby Yeadon, Pennsylvania, with pomp and ceremony equalled only by an inauguration or state fair. All in all, collectors fortunate enough to have attended the August 12 through 16 meeting of the ANA, will have memories that will be difficult to equal. To sum it all up — the convention was a success, a huge success.

The official registration was 7,772 persons. The convention was so anticipated that the official medal sets were completely sold through advance sales. The regular convention badge failed to remain in supply through the end of the convention and the closing banquet was oversold.

Tuesday, August 12, 1969

Officially this was the first day of the convention, yet a majority of dealers and many conventioners had already been here two or three days. Bourse registration lines were long and wound through the concourse area beneath the Philadelphia-Sheraton, the convention hotel.

Highlight of the day was the 4 p.m. announcement by Arthur Sipe of the computerized election results as tabulated by the First National Bank of Colorado Springs. The result of the mail balloting by the membership was submitted via registered mail and opened in front of the membership assembled. Results, as then announced, showed all the incumbents for the governorships, save one, being defeated.

A lack of vote spread between the top vote getters and the defeated candidates immediately led to the suspicion that there might be an error in the computerized results. This was confirmed when it was discovered that the programmer failed to take into consideration that the names on the ballots were rotated in five different sequences on the ballots. This created five different ballots and the programmer set the computer for only one type of ballot.

An embarrassed bank official and a member of the CPA firm that certified the results flew to Philadelphia to explain the error later during the convention.

A manual count later verified by a corrected program for the computer showed that all incumbents were re-elected. The offices of president and vice president were unopposed and Herbert M. Bergen and John Jay Pittman were elected respectively. The final results were:

Exhibits opened to the public at 1 p.m. today and several tours were arranged for the benefit of members and their families. A press room was maintained by the Numismatic Literary Guild and a hospitality room was maintained jointly by the Token and Medal Society and the Society of Paper Money Collectors. This was in addition to the regular hospitality room maintained by the host group for all convention badge holders.

Early in the morning the exhibit judges met for briefing and assignment and several tangent groups held their annual meetings. The Elongated Collectors, Central States Numismatic Society, and the Great Eastern Numismatic Association held board meetings. The Society for International Numismatists (SIN) held a general meeting and the Organization of International Numismatists (OIN) held an educational forum in the evening.

ber of their speakers matches that of the parent organization. The 1969 educators were Maj. Sheldon Carroll, Ray Byrne, and Charles Hoskins. Moderator for the educational session was Maurice M. Gould.

The Old Time Assay Commissioners held their annual luncheon at Shoyer's Restaurant, a Philadelphia landmark, and then attended the formal dedication of the Assay Room at the new United States Mint in Philadelphia.

Thursday, August 14, 1969

This was a day of ceremony, the new United States Mint at Philadelphia, the fourth in this city since 1792, was officially dedicated. Thousands of ANA delegates mingled with foreign visitors and dignitaries as the mass crowded historic Independence Mall to witness the official opening of the world's largest and most modern mint. The new mint stands just a few hundred feet from the site of the first United States Mint built in 1792.

Philadelphia Mayor James Tate welcomed the guests on behalf of the city and noted, "the Federal government shares my confidence that Philadelphia will continue to be a good city to make money in."

Main speaker at the dedication was David M. Kennedy, secretary of the Treasury. Other foreign dignitaries included Arne Bakken, director, Denkongelige Mint, Kongsberg, Norway, and president of the association of European mint directors. Also, the head mint officials of Austria, Canada, China, England, France, Germany, Israel, Italy, Mexico, Norway, South Africa, Spain and The Netherlands, were present.

After the dedication ceremonies guests had the opportunity to tour the new mint facilities and see the new General Motors super-presses in operation. The new presses are capable of producing 10,000 per minute as compared with 600 per minute with present day coin presses.

The highlight of the day, even though somewhat overshadowed by the prominence of so many guests, was still the Educational Forum under the direction of Joseph A. Byers. The three speakers for the evening were: Randolph Zander, speaking on "Coin Weights;" D. Paul Taxay, "New Facts on the Middleton Token;" and Henry Grunthal, "An Introduction to Medieval Numismatics." All three talks will be reprinted in The Numismatist shortly.

Friday, August 15, 1969

Not to be outdone by the Federal government, The Franklin Mint, the world's largest private mint, held its cornerstone laying ceremony in nearby Delaware County. With the exception of the U.S. Treasury officials the guest lists were very much the same — directors of the various world mints and ANA convention delegates and officers. Site of the ceremony was the company's new $10 million complex under construction outside of Philadelphia.

The affair marked another step in the company's five-year evolution to its present status as one of the world's foremost private mints. During the ceremonies, the president of the firm, Joseph M. Segel, announced that the first two foreign coin orders had been placed with the company. One order is for a ten-coin issue set for a country yet to be announced and the other is for a new 5-balboa commemorative coin for Panama.

THE GOVERNMENT

Evidence of the Treasury Department's recognition of numismatics and the part that it plays can be seen by the government's varied participation in the convention. Right: the Bureau of Engraving and Printing stationed experts to give demonstrations on the printing of paper money. Below: a BEP hand press was actually set up in the exhibit area to print specimen notes. Below rt.: a General Motors official explains the operation of the new super coin presses at the new mint. Bottom lt.: a close-up of the multiple dies used for the coin roller type presses. Bot. rt.: a new super press in operation. It is capable of producing 10,000 coins per minute.

Construction on the 180,000 sq. ft. plant began in January, 1969, and should be finished by early 1970. The plant will house the most modern equipment available for making coins, medals, and tokens. Expected employment is to exceed 1,000 skilled craftsmen, designers, sculptors, artists, and production people.

Friday's ANA highlight was the presentation of awards to the various exhibitors and for the Medal of Merit of the ANA. Winning exhibitors were: Class 1, United States Coins — Lelan G. Rogers, first; George V. Ramont, second; and Fred Frankensfield, third. Class 2, United States Paper Money — William A. Stumpf, first; John Morris, second; and John O. Baas, third. Class 3, Medals, Orders and Decorations — N. Neil Harris, first; Don Bailey, second; Valentine Pasvolsky, third. Class 4, Tokens — Max L. Keller, first; Raphael Ellenberger, second; Beatrice M. Saturday, August 16, 1969

The final day of the convention began early with the annual club representatives breakfast, Glenn Smedley officiating.

Convention registrants were treated to hors d'oeuvres courtesy of Medallion Art Company and Presidential Art Medals, just prior to the convention banquet.

The banquet guests were ushered in with music by the famous Mummies Band of Philadelphia in gay costumes. The usual presentation of the 50-Year Award, the Farran Zerbe Award and the Howland Wood Award for Best-in-Show highlighted the evening.

The Chicago Coin Club was recognized for its half-century membership in the association with a gold certificate. The association's highest award, the Farran Zerbe Award, was presented to Eric P. Newman, and the Howland Wood Award for best-in-show was presented to Lelan G. Rogers. In attendance at the banquet were most of the foreign dignitaries who had come to Philadelphia for the dedication of the new United States Mint. Miss Eva Adams, director of the mint, made one of her final appearances in this capacity and presented to the ANA a diagram chart on how United States coins are made. This chart is to be the fore-runner of a mint exhibit that will eventually be in the headquarters museum.

Sunday, August 17, 1969

A press breakfast, another ANA tradition, was held with members of the working numismatic press in attendance. They were able to question the governors about future plans for the association and the business that transpired during the board meetings. It was a fitting climax to a most exhaustive week. The ANA convention 1969 is now a matter of record, but for pomp and ceremony, it is a record that will stand for a long time to come. If you did not attend, if you were among the unfortunates, then make plans now to be with us in St. Louis in 1970.

Board Proposes Election Changes Seeks Opinion of Members First

During the Philadelphia ANA convention, the board of governors considered amendments to the bylaws proposed by the Election Procedures committee to provide for the following election changes:

1. No member shall be eligible for nomination or election to any office in ANA unless he or she has been a member in good standing for not less than three consecutive years immediately prior to nomination.

2. A candidate for office must receive at least five nominations from member clubs in good standing and at least five nominations from individual members in good standing.

3. The names of the nominators and the number of nominations will not be published in The Numismatist, but will be disclosed to any candidate upon his written request.

4. To be valid, nominations must be received by the executive director not earlier than February 1, and not later than April 15 of an election year.

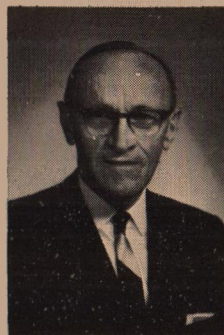

5. The numbered ballot envelopes to be returned by the members shall not be addressed to any addressee having "American Numismatic Association" or any abbreviation or variant thereof as a part of its designation.

6. No member may nominate a number of candidates for any office in excess of the number to be elected.

Although the members of the board of governors are not in accord with respect to all of the above amendments, a majority of its members is in favor of their adoption. Upon the recommendation of the Election Procedures committee, the board voted to authorize the publication of the amendments in The Numismatist and Club Bulletin and to defer any action until the February 1970, board meeting. Such deferment will enable the board to take into consideration any reaction from the members.

It is hoped that the members will voice their opinions for the guidance of the board. Views, pro and con, should be directed to the executive director, Adna G. Wilde, Jr., ANA, P. O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80901.

The annual convention of the American Numismatic Association is always the Big Event of the year for its members and the many guests that visit this outstanding numismatic show. This year it was held in Philadelphia, the cradle of American Colonial and United States coinage and still the home of the mother mint.

The timing of this convention was especially auspicious because the opening of the magnificent new modern mint building, the fourth such building to be erected and operated in Philadelphia, was held during the week of the convention. It was an exceptional opportunity for our members to see and participate in this gala ceremony which was attended by the high officials of the mint and the Treasury, as well as by mint officials from numerous foreign countries. The combination of an ANA convention and the opening of the new mint building is a very rare occurrence that may not be repeated for a very long time. Those who were able to attend should consider themselves most fortunate and the memories and mementos they took home should be prized as numismatic rarities of the highest order.

It seems appropriate here to mention that the director of the Mint, Miss Eva Adams, who had so much to do with the planning of this most modern coinage facility, graciously invited our members to attend the opening ceremony and to tour the building and view actual minting operations. It was in appreciation for this and the many past favors extended to our members that she was presented with an honorary Life Membership in ANA.

Our members were also invited to the cornerstone laying of the new private Franklin Mint in Yeadon on the outskirts of Philadelphia and to visit the existing mint facilities nearby.

With these extra attractions it was to be expected that this convention would have a record attendance. The convention committee and its staff deserve the highest praise for what was done to make this a success.

This was a year when a new board of governors was elected. The results of the election were transmitted to the executive director by the auditing firm located in Colorado Springs that was responsible for conducting the election and counting the votes. The vote count was made by a computer which unfortunately was incorrectly programmed and did not allow for alphabetical rotation of candidate names. This resulted in a first return that was obviously in error and made a recount necessary.

The new board of governors that was finally certified as elected is comprised of members from the prior board plus three new members. Two of these three members have had previous experience as board members and as officers. This provides a well informed board that will administer the affairs of the association for the ensuing two years. From it the membership can expect accomplishments that will serve to improve and strengthen this great organization of numismatists

Trichak, Trainor & Tillman, certified public accountants from Colorado Springs, have counted the ballots of the 1969 election to The Numismatic Hall of Fame. The ballots were counted in accordance with provisions of the election procedure of the bylaws of the hall of fame, a shrine of the American Numismatic Association.

The candidates receiving thirteen or more votes are listed below, in alphabetical order, and are elected to the hall of fame.

Edgar Adams, ANA 785 and honorary, fellow ANS, renowned author and contributor, editor of The Numismatist.

NEW & RECENT ISSUES

by Ernst Kraus, LM 129

It is the important duty of The Numismatist to record and illustrate new coins. To accomplish this, members in the United States and abroad are invited to submit new issues to Ernst Kraus, Room 939 (include room number in address), 393 Seventh Ave., New York, N. Y. 10001. Coins will be photographed and returned as soon as possible, and a credit line will be given to anyone assisting.

Bolivia

Last year saw the start of the first international coin issue in monetary history when many governments decided to use their coinage, both current and commemorative, to draw attention to urgent world food and development problems. Bolivia, Burundi, Ceylon, Lebanon, Nepal, Sudan, Syria and Uganda, plus the Order of Malta, the Vatican and Vietnam, have already issued such coins. Bahrain, China, Cyprus, Haiti, India, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, Madagascar, Mexico, the Philippines, Somalia, Tunisia, Turkey, the United Arab Republic, Uruguay, Yemen and Zambia, have decided in principle to issue these new development coins. It is expected that many more countries will issue such coins prior to the silver jubilee of FAO and the UN in October 1970. October seems to be a favorite release date as evidenced by the following coin of Bolivia, one of the first countries to participate.

68; Spanish legend below, GUERRA CONTRA EL HAMBRE (War Against Hunger); value spelled out above, UN PESO BOLIVIANO. 27mm diameter. 6 grams weight. Edge milled.

Designer and engraver was Wolfgang Dohm, Vereingte Deutsche Metallwerke, Altena, West Germany. Struck at the Hamburg Mint. Issue 25,000 to 40,000 pieces.

Kenya

Kenya achieved independence in 1963, a year later it assumed republican status and Jomo Kenyatta moved from prime minister to president. Imprisoned for seven years for leading the Mau Mau terrorism that led to eventual independence, Kenyatta's policies, since assuming the presidency, have won a reputation for moderation, and made him a leading figure in African politics.

A new set of coins has been released that is similar in design to the 1966 type issue, but has the added legend on the obverse around the portrait.

Y-8. 10 cents, 1969. Nickel-brass. Similar to above except for size and value. 31mm diameter. 9.3 grams weight. Edge plain.

Y-9. 25 cents, 1969. Copper-nickel. Similar to above except for size and value. 18mm diameter. 2.6 grams weight. Edge milled.

Y-10. 50 cents, 1969. Copper-nickel. Similar to above except for size and value. 21mm diameter. 4 grams weight. Edge milled.

Y-11. 1 shilling, 1969. Copper-nickel.

Similar to above except for size and value. 28mm diameter. 7.7 grams weight. Edge milled.

Y-12. 2 shillings, 1969. Copper-nickel. Similar to above except for size and value. 32mm diameter. 14.1 grams weight. Edge milled.

Peru

The monetary unit of Peru is the sol. The official par value, which had been 6.5 soles per U. S. dollar, was suspended in 1949, and a system which provided for fluctuating rates of exchange was established. Current rate is about 42 soles to the $1. The Banco Central des Reservas has functioned as the central bank of Peru since the 1920s, when it was set up with the standard functions of a central bank. It has the customary credit control powers, the note issue privileges, and serves as the financial agent for the government. The name of the bank appears on all coin and currency issues.

Y-75. 5 soles, 1969. Copper-nickel. Obverse: arms within inner circle;

Y-76. 10 soles, 1969. Copper-nickel. Obverse similar to above. Reverse: two fish of modernistic design swimming in opposite directions; numerals 10 for value above; mintmarks for Paris on each side at center; value written out around upper part, DIEZ SOLES DE ORO. 31mm diameter. 10 grams weight. Edge milled.

Poland

Poland came out of World War II with enormous losses of population, industry was smashed and agriculture devastated. Cities had ceased to exist and the people were divided between various political camps, the one common bond being the hatred of the Germans. In early 1944 when the Russian Armies, with Polish liberation groups, crossed the eastern borders of Poland to free the country, the Polish Committee of National Liberation was formed. In December 1944 PCNL was transformed into the provisional government and thus was born the Polish Peoples Republic. To mark the 25th anniversary of the founding of the peoples republic, Poland has issued a 10 zlotych commemorative coin.

Y-61. 10 zlotych, 1969. Copper-nickel. Obverse: Polish eagle with mintmark MW for Warsaw Mint under right claw, all within inner circle; date below; legend close around center, POLSKA RZECZPOSPOLITA LUDOWA (Polish Peoples Republic), leaving a wide plain field around. Reverse: a fan-like arrangement of 25 ears of grain with the dates 1944-1969 all within inner circle; value below, 10 ZŁ; legend around, close to inner circle, DWUDZIESTA PIATA ROCZNICA P.R.L. (25th Anniversary of the Polish Peoples Republic). 28mm diameter. 9.7 grams weight. Edge milled.

Somali Republic

The Somali Republic was formed in 1960 by the union of the former British Somaliland Protectorate and the Italian administered Trust Territory of Somalia. During World War II the British protectorate was evacuated but was recaptured in 1941 with Italian Somalia and Ethiopia. With the exception of the French Somaliland all the Somalias were then united under British military administration. In 1950 the Italians returned to Somalia with ten years to prepare the country for independence under UN sponsorship. Taking advantage of the modest progress which the British military forces had accomplished, the Italians rapidly pursued social and political advancement. Their influence remains today and thus explains why an African state would issue coins of Italian denominations.

Y-6. 5 centesimi, 1967. Nickel-brass. Obverse: arms emblem in center between dates 1967 in Arabic and English numerals; SOMALI REPUBLIC above in English; below in Arabic. Reverse: value within inner circle, in Italian, 5 CENTESIMI; star below; in English above, FIVE CENTS; in Arabic below. 19.2mm diameter. 2.5 grams weight. Edge plain.

Y-7. 10 centesimi, 1967. Nickel-brass. Similar to above except for size and value. 22.15mm diameter. 4.5 grams weight. Edge plain.

Y-8. 50 centesimi, 1967. Copper-nickel. Similar to above except for size and value. 20.8mm diameter. 3.8 grams weight. Edge milled.

Y-9. 1 scellino, 1967. Copper-nickel. Similar to above except for size and value. 26.3mm diameter. 7.6 grams weight. Edge milled.

The above coins were struck at the Royal Mint, London.

Sudan

The Sudanese issue for the country's participation in the FAO coin program represents a new high value, and is primarily commemorative. Seignorage will be used for food and agricultural development.

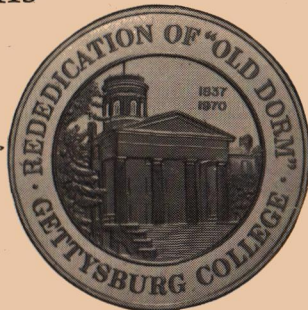

Y-27. 25 piastres, 1968. Copper-nickel. Obverse: officially described as a "flying postman" — an armed native riding a camel, to left; F.A.O. and Gregorian and Mohammedan dates, 1968 AD - 1388 AH, in Arabic below; also in Arabic at top, LET US ALL WORK TOGETHER TO PROVIDE FOOD FOR ALL. Reverse: Arabic numerals 25 for value in center between floral designs representing the cotton plant; GUERSH below; Arabic legend at top, REPUBLIC OF SUDAN. 32mm diameter. 15.5 grams weight. Edge milled.

Coin was designed by Sayed Mohammed Ismail Ali and struck at the Khartoum Mint.

Old Dorm Medal of Interest to Civil War Buffs

by Arthur Sipe, ANA LM 446

In the early 1830s, John W. Trautwein of Philadelphia, was commissioned by the patrons of Pennsylvania College, now known as Gettysburg College, to design a "proper college edifice" for one of the campus buildings. The fruits of his labors stand today as an unusually dignified and effective example of the American Greek Revival style of architecture. "Old Dorm," as it is affectionately called, has withstood 130 years of constant use; it has housed rambunctious coeds and wounded soldiers, as it once served as a make-shift hospital during the three day Battle of Gettysburg. The Civil War buffs may be interested to know the dominant tower of this structure was also used as a vantage point by both the Blue and the Grey during the War between the States.

Today, the face of "Old Dorm," Pennsylvania Hall officially, is being lifted. The climax of its restoration, in October 1969, will be captured in a commemorative medal which will be issued for purchase and distribution at that time. The rededication of this grand, historic monument signifies the future growth and development of one of the country's most vital liberal arts colleges and the medal itself is one of utmost interest to those who are avid students of the Civil War.

This medal was struck by Philadelphia's Franklin Mint and was designed by Fritz Weiland. He was born in Ludenscheid/Westphalia, Germany in February of 1900. At the age of 14, he entered apprenticeship in engraving. His chief interest was sculpture engraving and from 1945 until 1955 he worked independently in this area. During that time he created many striking pieces; among his most outstanding works, his sculptures of the head of Christ and the Lord's Supper are the most notable. In 1955 he arrived in America and has recently joined the staff of the Franklin Mint.

His latest creation, the Old Dorm medal, portrays the building as it originally stood on the obverse and a winged Mercury graces the reverse. This medal, struck in a limited edition, is being offered for sale on a first come, first sale basis. In sterling silver, the medal is priced at $10.00 each, postpaid; each postpaid bronze medal will cost $3.00. They have been attractively packaged for convenience and protection in display.

All checks should be payable to "Gettysburg College." Please specify both kind and quantity desired and mail to the Alumni Office, Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania 17325.

FEATURING FAKES

DO YOU HAVE THE ORIGINAL?

"Gold" collectors for some reason seem to spend less care in examining coins they buy than do collectors of silver coins.

Possibly it's because a gold counterfeit is so easily buffed to the dazzling brilliance which automatically has appealed to mankind ever since we came down out of the trees (if we really did!).

At the bottom of the next page you'll see five shiny USA gold pieces . . . all well-made cast counterfeits . . . which were found in one rather knowledgeable man's collection when he offered it for sale.

You'll see at the top of this page a cast gold counterfeit Nueva Granada (Colombia) 16 pesos piece, dated 1842, type II, Lopez-Chaves & Yriarte No. 813 (Catalogo de las Onzas de America Independiente).

Although it's a rather poor job of casting, that fake had passed through the hands of several collectors until its last owner waxed a wee bit suspicious and submitted the piece for close examination.

And, below, you'll see an extremely lousy bit of cast gold workmanship on this counterfeit 1786 Potosi gold 8 escudos.

But, because the fake had been buffed so highly that the glare almost called for the wearing of dark sunglasses when looking at it, this counterfeit almost defied examination for cast texture. The piece last was sold to a southeast Texas man . . . who now has but a high-priced "conversation piece" for his cash.

What will happen to that fake when, some day, the executor of his estate offers for sale the contents of the collector's bank box? Will it be sold once more to another innocent collector?

Along the Mexico-USA border states, the counterfeit Maximiliano gold 20 pesos (seen above) still is a best-seller.

Despite the frequent publicity exposing the large quantity of these gold counterfeit Max 20 pesos, given in the literature of The Maximilian Society, in Plus Ultra, and in other publications besides The Numismatist, collectors continue buying these counterfeits and then have the coins examined later. And "later" oft proves to be too late, because the seller then is long gone!

What's the practical solution to the problem?

It gets quite complicated and sticky these days.

Let us assume that Dealer XYZ is completely honest, but not equipped to detect a cast counterfeit Max 20 pesos. He sells such a gold coin which he has bought in good faith, and which he sells in good faith. Some time later the buyer has the coin examined and the coin is found to be a cast counterfeit. The buyer returns the coin to the dealer with a request for refund.

How does the dealer know that the collector hasn't switched coins on him? ... for that's been done many a time. The dealer has no way of proving it's a different coin than the one he sold, and the collector has no way of proving it's the same coin. Or the buyer may since have sold it to another collector who returned it as a fake to the buyer ... and the buyer can't prove that the coin wasn't switched by the lad to whom he'd sold it. Result? Nobody's happy, everybody's suspicious, hard feelings result, even though the dealer refunds the cash.

If the American Numismatic Authentication Trust (ANAT) would have been in operation, then any genuine coin would have been photo'd (there are no two identical coins), and that coin's authentication certificate would have been handed to the buyer at the time he bought it from the dealer, and the coin right then and there would have been compared with its picture on the certificate.

Made YOUR contribution yet? ANAT is still shy $30,000!

Mint Medals Catalogued

Coinciding with the dedication of the new United States Mint at Philadelphia, the Treasury Department has issued its first illustrated catalogue of mint medals that are available to the public. It can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402, at a cost of $3.50.

The use of national medals by the United States government began as early as the Revolutionary War, when medals were authorized to be made and presented to outstanding military and navy heroes. These medals were struck at the French Mint, principally under the direction of Thomas Jefferson, then the first U. S. ambassador to France. An accompanying monograph by Carl Zigrosser outlines the history of some of these first medals, which were executed by the French sculptor, Augustin Dupre.

Early in the administration of Thomas Jefferson, the mint began to strike silver shells bearing the likeness of the president for presentation to Indian chiefs. Later, when the equipment was available, the mint began to strike solid silver medals of the presidents. The evolution of these medals into the present official presidential series is described in the catalogue.

About a century ago, the mint began to gather together, from various sources, the dies used to strike the medals which had been authorized by Congress. Bronze copies of these medals were made available to the public, starting in the 1860s.

The series honoring Treasury secretaries was started in 1881, though medals of Alexander Hamilton and Albert Gallatin, first and second secretaries of the Treasury, were added in recent years. The mint directors medals were started in the mid-nineteenth century and, here too, early directors have since been added.

As indicated, the Army and Navy series started with the Revolutionary War. They were continued with enthusiasm by President Madison honoring the military and naval heroes of the War of 1812. There followed medals for the War with Mexico. The series concludes with the medal for Admiral Rickover in the Navy series and that for General Grant in the Army series.

Although the concluding series in the catalogue bears the title of miscellaneous, there appears a wide range of notable civilians honored by Congress. The series begins with a number of medallic tributes to Washington, both as a general and as president, and concludes with men in all walks of life whose achievements have been memorialized by the Congress of the United States.

Cable Grovercat — Philadelphia's Buchanan Tokens

In The Numismatist, July 1951, page 749, we illustrated a W. P. Buchanan token as follows:

"We can find no pertinent information regarding this token and we have seen no similar pieces, although it appears by its workmanship to have been intended for wide circulation."

Current Classification:

PA:150.39.1:SC:20:Br:16(25.3mm):Bd4,Ed1:R7

No one wrote about this interesting piece; however, we were able to obtain the following Buchanan pieces which tell us that he was in the photographic supply business in Philadelphia. His business must have been large and international because of his cable address, Grovercat, Phila. (Wright's 121 gave the cable address as Grovercab, which was incorrect.)

This establishes Buchanan's business and city of operation.

PA:150.39.2:SC:20:WM:16(25.3mm):Bd4,Ed1:R7

Reverse: same as above.

Metal: copper. Size: 16 (25.3mm). Border: no. 4; edge, no. 1. Issued: 1895. Rarity 7.

Being the second annual entertainment, it is safe to say that the first was in 1894 and in all probability was the second meeting of P. A. of P.

PA:150.39.3:SC:20:Cu:16(25.3mm):Bd4,Ed1:R7

Metal: white metal. Size: 16 (25.3 mm). Border: no. 4; edge, no. 1. Issued: 1895. Rarity 7.

Metal: brass. Size: 16 (25.3mm). Border: no. 4; edge, no. 1. Issued: 1897. Rarity 7.

Since Buchanan issued tokens for 1894 and 1895 it is reasonable that they were issued for 1896. We have no idea what P. A. of P. stands for but Buchanan must have been either an officer or influential member to use tokens for each of their conventions. From the die work, it is felt they were cut by one of the Lovetts and not too many striking of each, as the reverse die is the same throughout.

Obverse: same as reverse above.

Reverse: counterstamp 191.

Metal: brass. Size 16 (25.3mm). Border: no. 4; edge, no. 1. Issued: 1890s. Rarity 7.

This piece is a claim check for material left at Buchanan's either for development or for pickup. It was hardly used as coupons at the conventions. It is presumed that Buchanan ran a developing service.

PA:150.39.6:SC:20:Br:Bd4,Ed1:R7

Collectors who can supply additional information on any of the tokens, published or unpublished, are asked to write the author, Melvin Fuld, 6701 Park Heights Ave., Apt. 1D, Baltimore, Maryland 21215.

Trio Awarded Medals of Merit at Philadelphia

Mrs. Byrnadette Gabarron, Jake B. Sureck, and Dr. Alberto F. Pradeau, received the coveted Medals of Merit at the 78th anniversary convention of the ANA in Philadelphia.

The awards were made by outgoing president Arthur Sipe. Both Mr. Sureck and Mrs. Gabarron were on hand to receive their awards. Dr. Pradeau had not been able to attend in person and it was accepted for him by the ANA historian, Jack Ogilvie. The recognitions were extended for the meritorious contributions to the ANA and to numismatics by the trio.

Mrs. Gabarron was singled out for her work and assistance to her husband when he was ANA librarian.

She also has had published two articles on the history and functions of the library.

Sureck was recognized for his almost 35 years of active service to the association and his work on many committees. He was also one of the organizers and charter members of the Oklahoma City Coin Club and the Oklahoma-Kansas Numismatic Association.

Dr. Pradeau was awarded the honor for his untiring efforts, study and research on the coins of our neighbor to the south, Mexico. He has had numerous articles on the subject published in The Numismatist.

BOOK REVIEWS

Lo, here a little volume, but great book! . . . Richard Crashaw, 1649.

THE UNITED STATES EARLY SILVER DOLLARS FROM 1794 TO 1803 by M. H. Bolender. Revised edition. 84pp. Illustrated. Hard cover. Bebee's Inc., 4514 N. 30th St., Omaha, Neb. 68111. $14.50.

That the subject of this book was well researched is attested by the fact that practically nothing new has come to light since publication of the original work 19 years ago. In fact, there would have been no point in producing a new edition if the supply of the original had not been exhausted several years ago.

The current book is an almost exact reproduction of Bolender's with the addition of a picture and brief biography of the eminent but modest author. Two incorrect cuts in the 1950 book have been replaced, and there is included a loose-leaf 1969 valuation list of the dollars, as attributed by Bolender, in five conditions.

This is a fine book, both in contents and mechanically. The type is the same (photographically reproduced) and the 157 illustrations look even better than those in the original, maybe because of the whiter paper used. I can find no flaw in the revised edition, nor any criticism of it except that, on the page about the 1804 dollar, there is no reference to Newman's and Bressett's 1962 book The Fantastic 1804 Dollar. However, this extensive work bears out Bolender's stated opinion that "the dated 1804 dollars were struck some years later."

If my memory is correct, the 1950 book was published at $10.00 per copy. A few months ago it was priced at $50-$70 in a published listing of current prices of numismatic books. The new edition may be obtained from Bebee's Inc., at $14.50, a very reasonable price today for such a fine book. — Glenn S.

LIBRA

September 23 - October 23

Of all the Zodiacal types, Libra invites the fewest enemies. He has an adroit mixture of diplomacy and polished mannerisms which he employs to become the leader in club affairs. He is capable of influencing collectors and winning them over to his interests.

Another of the French Mint "calendar" medals. This 100mm bronze beauty depicts the four seasons on the obverse and the signs of the Zodiac, intaglio engraved in the die by hand, on the reverse. It is the work of Raymond Corbin.

is an excellent example of what can be done by a local club in the way of numismatic research. It is as nearly complete a listing as possible of the trade tokens of British Columbia and the Yukon Territory.

The tokens are listed, numbered, and described according to the principles adopted by the Canadian Numismatic Research Society. A brief explanation of the symbols is given at the beginning. Contributions were made to this effort by many individuals, not all of them living in British Columbia, and these contributions were consolidated, numbered, and listed by L. C. Hill and Ronald Greene.

Other listings of British Columbia tokens have been published, but this is the first to be published in book form, and the first to be considered complete or even nearly so. Unfortunately the costs of printing and publication do not permit the inclusion of background material. This element of prohibitive costs is one of the most serious weaknesses in the fabric of our present society. It is not the fault of the Research Committee, whosoever it may be. Nevertheless, it is hoped that some day an article will appear on the life of Con Jones of Vancouver, the issuer of the famous "Don't argue" tokens, and that another will appear explaining the use of the garbage tags of South Vancouver.

American Numismatic Association

OFFICERS'
REPORTS

78th

Anniversary Convention

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Annual Report of the President 1968-1969

The year 1968-1969 has been a profitable year for the American Numismatic Association since our San Diego convention and an exciting one for me as president. I enjoyed meeting all my friends on my visits to the various sections of North America attending regional, state and local numismatic conventions and meetings as well as the meeting of the Canadian Numismatic Association in Calgary, Alberta, last July.

The election procedure committee appointed in June 1968 under the chairmanship of Herbert M. Bergen, recommended that the board rescind the action taken in February, 1968 with relation to the selection of a president and vice president. This recommendation was accepted so that the president and vice president are again being voted for by the entire membership.

The District Representatives program under the chairmanship of Glenn Smedley was enlarged to include 32 districts; the chairman was authorized to increase the number of districts to as many as 55 at his discretion. This program has been functioning very well and I hope will be expanded in the years ahead because it affords a close contact between the local clubs and the ANA.

Glenn Smedley reporting for the papers committee mentioned that one article was prepared and published in the May, 1969 issue of The Numismatist titled, "So You Want to Write a Numismatic Article."

The reward fund committee headed by Grover Criswell was granted permission to award $1,000.00 to B. Jay Gould of Sarasota, Florida for his help in the apprehension and conviction of the robbers who robbed Dr. E. R. Anderson of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Our certified public accountants, Trichak, Trainor and Tillman, in their year-end report recommended that our headquarters office change its accounting method from a cash to an accrual basis; this is being instituted as of July 1, 1969.

It was agreed that all forum speakers for the annual ANA conventions including the ANA Educational Forum be approved by the president and executive director with the consultation of the board.

A credit of $1.00 for any affiliated club was to be granted for each new ANA member (except associate member) signed by a club and sponsored by the club representative prior to August 1, 1969. The $1.00 credit may be used in making the club's next dues payments or used toward the purchase of items sold by the association. This is a trial promotion and will be reviewed at the August board meeting.

The finance committee under the chairmanship of Herbert M. Bergen recommended the establishment of an American Numismatic Association endowment fund. Funds are to be invested in the most advantageous manner as to maximum safety and return by the executive director and treasurer.

The endowment fund income shall be used primarily for the ANA museum and library, but at this time the board authorized to place this income in the general fund.

The Gift, Bequest and Endowment Fund committee head by Charles M. Johnson recommended that the executive director and editor of The Numismatist proceed with a fund raising campaign along the lines outlined in the studies of the committee, to promote and develop ANA's gift, bequest and endowment fund program to reach an initial goal of $100,000.00 within the next year to be used for the establishment of an endowment fund.

That the executive director proceed to set up and place in operation an accounting system for all gifts and bequests to ANA or to the endowment fund and also for all museum acquisitions now on hand or later acquired as outlined in the studies of the two committees. It was also agreed that the executive director start work to prepare a set of plans and specifications for developing ANA museum in consultation with the committee.

In February, the United States Bureau of Engraving and Printing prepared and placed on exhibit a fabulous display of paper money in very attractive cases. James Conlon, director of the Bureau came to Colorado Springs to attend the presentation ceremonies; the association is indeed grateful for this outstanding currency exhibit.

The Gift, Bequest and Endowment fund committee reports that the museum received gifts of cash, coins, paper money and medals valued at $44,012.04 during the past year.

The Library committee with Charles M. Johnson as chairman reports that the library has received during the year gifts of cash and numismatic literature amounting to $33,401.02 with many new and out-of-print titles being purchased at a cost of $1,144.63.

The librarian is working hard in order to finish the cataloguing of thousands of additional items so that a new and up-to-date library catalogue can be soon published. During the year our mail order library loaned over 1,865 items or titles to 646 borrowers in every section of the country.

The nominations list to the Numismatic Hall of Fame was reviewed by the board and submitted to the electors who make the final choices as provided in the by-laws. Jack Ogilvie, chairman of this committee has worked hard to bring this project to a reality and we appreciate it.

The Washington Educational committee under the chairmanship of Ellis Edlow, our District of Columbia representative, reports progress; we have kept in touch with the policy making principals in the Treasury Department throughout the past year.

The executive director wrote a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury of the U.S. and other government officials, stating that the ANA will continue to offer to lend itself to any action taken with reference to the distribution of the silver dollars now held by the U.S. Treasury Department.

The board approved the writing of a letter to the Honorable Eva Adams, Director of the Mint, stating the official recommendations of the ANA board relative to the distribution of the 1969 proof sets as suggested by my January 24th letter to her, in which I stated, among other suggestions, that I felt that the collector who wanted to buy one proof set from his government should be in a position to do so.

Another letter was sent by the executive director to the Secretary of the Treasury and selected congressional officials reaffirming the ANA's position that a coin or coins be struck in 1976 to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence, and that the designs be formulated by competition among leading sculptors.

Since the office of second vice president has been eliminated by board action, the by-laws were changed by George D. Hatie, our legal counsel, so that the term first vice president was changed vice president and the Section 4 of article IV of the by-laws, which outlines the duties of second vice president, be eliminated.

A new brochure including an application for membership in the ANA was prepared by Glenn Smedley and others with the result that 5000 copies were printed; these are being well received.

The medals committee with Virginia Culver as chairman, recommended the acceptance of the sketches for the 78th anniversary convention as prepared by Medallion Art Company by Frank Gasparro, chief engraver at the U.S. Mint; these are outstanding designs.

Virginia Culver, chairman of the Numismatic Terms Standardization committee suggested that the executive director write a letter to all numismatic trade publications asking that they subscribe to the use of the terms set forth in the ANA's Dictionary of Numismatic Terms and therefore proctor their own advertising copy by having their names listed on the inside cover of the revised edition showing they are subscribers. This committee has done an outstanding job in having published the dictionary for distribution at the San Diego convention. 102 new phrases and words have been defined and will be included in the new printing for distribution at the Philadelphia convention.

The Heath Literary Awards committee under the chairmanship of Eldridge Jones is submitting a list of winners for the outstanding articles in The Numismatist for the year 1968.

A numismatic seminar to be held on the campus of Colorado College has been announced and advertised in the numismatic press during the past year; it was held the week of July 14th under the direction of Ed. Rochette. The seminar was an outstanding success with twenty enthusiastic numismatists participating from thirteen states from the Atlantic to the Pacific Oceans.

Grover Criswell, chairman of the ANA's Insurance committee had an all-risk numismatic property proposal prepared by the Albert H. Wohlers Company from Chicago for the purpose of securing an insurance policy for the members of the ANA; this policy will be discussed and acted on at the board's August meeting.

National Coin Week under the direction of Ed Rochette with its theme "Coins-Links in a Chain of Peace" brought a large number of entries with some extensive reports to our headquarters; it was an outstanding success with wide participation.

Charles Hoskins and Don Sherer, our last second vice president, with the able assistance of Dorothy and Al Baber prepared an extensive and informative convention manual; this was a tremendous help to the members of the Philadelphia convention committee.

My sincere thanks is extended to Thomas E. Werner and his energetic and diligent committee for arranging the 78th anniversary convention in Philadelphia.

John Pittman is again arranging for a judging symposium at the August convention in order to increase the number of qualified judges. Our visual aids program has advanced under his guidance.

John J. Gabarron has continued to look after our display cases and is getting things in order for our Philadelphia convention.

The improved and interesting Numismatist has been issued each month during the past year under the guidance of Edward C. Rochette, our editor.

Adna G. Wilde, Jr. our new executive director since August 6th, 1968, has taken over his duties with great enthusiasm and vigor; we look for greater and greater accomplishments from him in the years ahead. Our new headquarters building is serving its purpose well, during the two years since its dedication.

We are eternally grateful for all the gifts and bequests which have been given to the ANA during the past year and hope that you will continue to remember the needs of your association by contributing to its endowment fund.

The young numismatists are continuing their efforts and interest under the co-chairmanship of Grover C. Criswell and Hazel Lindstrom. A page in The Numismatist headed "For the Juniors" features activities and suggestions for our junior collectors throughout the year.

The advisory council composed of past ANA presidents and former members of the board of governors is headed by Matt Rothert. The council held its first meeting in San Diego and made specific recommendations to the board; it will meet again at the Philadelphia convention.

Dr. V. Clain-Stefanelli, our curator, has given us guidance and advice for our museum. He and his wife have been busy with the fabulous Lilly collection, now being exhibited in the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.

The ANA board has urged the establishment of a Numismatic Agency in the U.S. Treasury Department; the Secretary of the Treasury and other officials in Washington will receive letters endorsing such an agency.

My sincere thanks is extended to the members of the board of governors, Adna G. Wilde, Jr. our executive director, Edward C. Rochette, our editor, Wm. C. Henderson, our treasurer, the capable staff in our headquarters office, the members of the various ANA committees, the club and district representatives, the numismatic press and all of you who have contributed to the advancement and betterment of our hobby and association during the past year. I hope you will continue your support for a strong and ever expanding American Numismatic Association.

ARTHUR SIPE
President

Report of the First Vice President

As in the preceding, the first vice president was called upon by the president, Arthur Sipe, to assist him on numerous occasions in dealing with duties and problems where advice and assistance was needed. It was a pleasure to do this for the president who has worked so hard and has been so conscientious in seeing that the affairs of ANA functioned smoothly and efficiently.

Most of the duties assigned to the first vice president as his work load under the committee system, used by the board of governors to direct and oversee operations of the association, came with the chairmanship of four committees. These were Finance and Budget, Election Procedures, Personnel, and Publications. The activities of these are covered in detail by the reports given separately for each of them.

Thanks and appreciation are extended for the cooperation and support received from committee members and those in our headquarters staff who took part in giving assistance.

HERBERT M. BERGEN
First Vice President

Report of the Second Vice President

The duties of the second vice president, an office that is being eliminated, are to assist the president in anything that is assigned by him. Any accomplishments therefore would be reported by the president.

This year, I would like to include in the report, my thanks to my many friends who are members of the ANA for assisting me over the years. The marvelous fraternal friendships we have had have enriched my life.

May all of us continue to enjoy our hobby and to do all we can for the benefit of the ANA.

DON SHERER
Second Vice President

Report of the Editor

I welcome this opportunity to thank those members, who through their literary talents and cooperation, have made the editing of the The Numismatist possible. Without their willingness to share their numismatic knowledge our magazine would have little to offer.

We are happy to note that the cost of producing the magazine was at the second lowest figure in a number of years. The cost, $100,133.75, is only slightly above last year's $96,223. While rising costs can be blamed, we would like to point out that the average number of pages per issue has increased from 144 pages to 152 pages. Taking the number of pages printed, and the number of copies delivered, into consideration, we can report that the actual printing cost has dropped about $10 per page since 1964-65.

Editorially, I am indebted to such regulars as Ernst Kraus, Virgil Hancock, Melvin Fuld, Virginia Culver, and Glenn Smedley for their regular monthly features. A special word of thanks is extended to Vir Den Mayo of McCormick-Armstrong, our printers, and to the staffs of Coin World, COINage, and Numismatic News, for a great deal of behind the scenes help.

The editorial balance for the magazine has been maintained with an effort to provide articles of interest for all collecting tastes and with no intent to overlook any field of numismatics. From the letters of comment, I believe that there has been some success in this direction.

Report of the Executive Director

As executive director of our association, I am pleased to report that the year has been a good one for ANA. This has been a most rewarding year for me because of the opportunity to meet hundreds of numismatists throughout the country.

The office staff in Colorado Springs has been maintained at the same level, although there have been changes as some of our secretaries departed for reasons of matrimony.

Visitors continue to flow through the museum and library — with 1890 signing our visitors' register. Several displays have been exhibited during the year, directly contributing to the increased interest in the museum. One of the most publicized exhibits was the one presented by the Treasury Department, Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Director James Conlon was here for this presentation to ANA, and the board of governors received the exhibit.

Mr. Kenn Henderson formally loaned an exhibit from the International Nickel Company which show 156 coins of the world from 63 different countries, all made of pure nickel. Another exhibit titled "Coloradiana" deals with coins, currencies, tokens, medals and bank checks issued in Colorado. The history of each piece is graphically outlined. The prize-winning display was prepared by ANA's treasurer, William C. Henderson.

National Coin Week scrapbooks have been on display this spring and summer. Competition has been very active and the winners' names have been announced through the numismatic press.

Membership in ANA has increased over the year and listed below is the state breakdown of individual members and club members. There was a very small decrease in numbers of clubs, 22 to be exact. Compare your state — how did it rank in membership?

Report of the Advertising Manager

The increased number of ads and pages in The Numismatist and the increased revenue from advertising is indicative of the overall good financial picture of the association. This year's revenue has been reported at $73,327.84 by the CPA, up from $64,301 the previous year. Part of the increase can be attributed to a rate increase instituted in April 1968, but because of contract commitments, not fully noticed until the later part of his year.

The actual position of advertising manager has been vacant since the death of S. W. Freeman in September of 1967. The duties have been incorporated with that of the editor since that time.

Report of the Librarian

Students of numismatics from all of the United States and several foreign countries have used the resources of the ANA library during the fiscal year 1968-69. 1865 books were loaned to 646 borrowers.

Sales of numismatic material reached a total over two and one half times of last year's sales, with gross receipts amounting to $6,339.33. Quantities sold were distributed as follows:

Reprints	3179	Books	435
Numismatists and Numismatic Scrapbooks (including complimentary copies)	1703	Miscellaneous	3
Billed items — money not received			$188.79

We are grateful for having received several large donations of private collections of books during the year, notably the S. W. Freeman, M. Vernon Sheldon and Norman Hathaway donations. Special thanks are also due to Whitman Publishing Company and Sidney Publishing Company for their continued support of the library.

During the coming year we hope to finish the enormous task of re-cataloging and to publish a new catalog.

We have been most happy to greet the ever increasing number of ANA members who visit the library.

GENEVA KARLSON
Librarian

Report of the Curator

In the fiscal year 1968-1969, all coins in the Moritz Wormser Memorial Collection from the countries of Afghanistan to Zambia have been reinventoried. From two compiled books one may quickly see what is available for research or display in the ANA museum. The next task is to reinventory the medals.

Members of the association may indeed be grateful to the many individuals and organizations for their generous contributions. In this year the following were received:

7,530 coins	44 wooden nickels
1,003 tokens	21 convention badges
560 currencies	20 miscellaneous items
238 medals

Donors have been acknowledged throughout the year in The Numismatist, but special appreciation should be given to: S. R. Diskin, Fairway Coin Company, John B. Hamrick, Jr., R. Henry Norweb, and Harry A. Prock.

Particular thanks are extended to Mr. James Conlon, Director of the Bureau of Engraving & Printing, Department of the Treasury, for the exhibit of currency presented to the ANA on February 19, 1969. The eight large frames were especially designed for the association's museum, with a face value of $86,000. There are specimens from 1862 to date (Barr notes included) with the smallest denomination 25¢, and the largest $10,000.

The present need of the museum is permanent cases to display our collection. Donations are gratefully accepted in order to achieve this goal.

Report of the Historian

The initiation of the first election of candidates to the Numismatic Hall of Fame in 1968-69 was an historic milestone. More details may be found in the President's Report.

Thanks to the assistance of numerous dedicated members, needed badges have been received or negotiations for their transfer concluded to bring the ANA Convention Badge program to within three badges of completion. The three still needed are the 1908 Philadelphia and both types of the 1919 Philadelphia. It would be nice indeed if they could be acquired while the association was meeting in the city of their origin.

The convention badge set, when completed will be on permanent display at the museum in Colorado Springs, and also exhibited at annual conventions. So that bifaced pendants may be displayed showing both the obverse and reverse, the following duplicates will be needed: 1915 San Francisco, 1916 Baltimore, 1927 Hartford, Conn., and the 1932 Los Angeles.

The historian is continually striving to obtain other ANA memorabilia for its Historic Archives.

The neorology for the past year included, among others, two senior members: Charles L. Blumenschein and Edward W. Williams; past president, P. K. Anderson; J. Hunt Deacon, foremost Australian numismatist; and James Kelly, noted Ohio dealer.

Report of the Treasurer

Activities of your treasurer for the year 1968-1969 increased over the previous year, due to increased activities of your association. During the past year, I issued 614 checks from the General Fund in payment of services and expenses in behalf of the association. In addition, I issued 283 checks from the Payroll Account. Our personnel are now paid twice a month, on the first and fifteenth, whereas, in previous years it was on a monthly basis.

The end of this fiscal years marks the first full year of working with the local auditing firm, Trichak, Trainor and Tillman. This has proven to be most advantageous; the treasurer and bookkeeper have been able to obtain information and answers to questions immediately. The auditing firm has also made quarterly checks of our financial operations with resultant comments and advice.

Previous recommendations of our Auditors that we change our operations to an accrual system will be implemented, beginning with our next fiscal year, July 1, 1969 - June 30, 1970. With the advent of this system, future year-end reports will be more accurate and meaningful.

Our fiscal operations for the past year came nearer the goals of a balanced budget, expenses exceeded income by almost $9,000.00. Increased income resulted from an increase in membership; increased subscription sales; reprint sales, jewelry and medal sales and an increase in advertising income from The Numismatist.

Interest income from investments shows a decrease, but had we been on an accrual basis, there would have been an increase of approximately $1,600.00. One investment of surplus funds, yielding $2,231.25 of interest matured July 8, 1969, eight days after the close of our fiscal period, June 30, 1969. The major increase in expenses was for the printing of The Numismatist, resulting from increased membership. There were several other areas reflecting increased cost, but some segments of our internal operations were conducted during the past year at reduced costs. Some increased costs are beyond our control, such as mailing costs and increased postage rates.

A detailed breakdown of income and expense will be found in our Auditor's report.

Report of the Certified Public Accountants

Board of Governors
American Numismatic Association
Colorado Springs, Colorado

We have examined the balance sheet resulting from cash transactions of the American Numismatic Association as of June 30, 1969, and the related statement of cash revenues and expenditures, and changes in trust fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

These statements have been prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis and therefore do not purport to present financial position and results of operations as they would have appeared had generally accepted accrual basis accounting principles been applied in their preparation.

In our opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of the American Numismatic Association as of June 30, 1969, arising from cash transactions, and revenues collected and expenditures made by it and changes in fund balances during the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 1969

Note 1 — Property Assets, Home and Headquarters Building

The total costs accumulated to June 30, 1969, were $296,963, an increase of $825 during the current year. This total includes buildings, furniture, office equipment, lawn and sprinkler system, and paving.

The audit report for a prior period included a comment that the property was to be depreciated over a 25 year period. An allowance for depreciation was not recognized and recorded in the current balance sheet or related statement of expenditures because no constructive purpose would be achieved by doing so. There is no present plan to fund depreciation with cash and there is no income tax advantage because of the organization's non-profit tax exempt status.

The land on which the building is located is leased from the Colorado College for a rental of $1 per year for 99 years, with an option to renew for an additional 99 years.

Note 2 — Unearned Revenue

At June 30, 1969, the 1969 convention income of $21,240 and the seminar income of $525 was unearned. This income will not be earned until the American Numismatic Association has had the 1969 convention and has conducted the seminar.

Note 3 — The American Numismatic Association Endowment Fund

The American Numismatic Association Endowment Fund was established to support the museum and library through the sale of 1,000 shares of Franklin Mint Stock. At June 30, 1969, 200 of the 1,000 shares of stock had been sold at a net price of $19,791. The additional $101 in the Endowment Fund consisted of a $100 donation and $1 of interest.

Note 4 — Sculptor Award

The $900 Sculptor Award includes a $450 payment for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1969, and a prepayment of $450 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1970.

Note 5 — Museum and Library Collections

The Statements of Cash Revenues and Expenditures do not include approximately $71,000 of non-cash donations to the museum and library and the Balance Sheet does not include the assets of the museum and library.

Committee Reports

Finance and Budget Committee

The Finance and Budget Committee, consisting of Herbert M. Bergen, chairman; Don Sherer, second vice-president; and William C. Henderson, treasurer; is pleased to note that the auditor's report for the year ending June 30, 1969 shows a substantial improvement in the financial status of the association.

According to the report, which is on a cash basis, the cash income was $12,383 in excess of expenditures. This included $21,240 income for the 1969 convention, thus being unearned income. Only $1,326 was paid as expense for this account. If the difference is set aside, as it should be to find the actual income for the year, we arrive at $7,627 as an operating loss for the year. Using the same method for analysis of the report for the preceding year, we had a loss of $23,429 for that year. Thus the operating loss this year was $15,802 less than last year. This proves the improvement in our position.

The gain we have made is very encouraging and leads us to expect that a surplus will result next year. Credit for this fine showing must go to the staff in our headquarters at Colorado Springs. Every effort was made to keep costs down. At the same time income was increased by a net growth in membership and more sales of subscriptions and reprints.

The budget for the past year indicated a deficit of $5,820. If we use the adjusted figure of $7,627 as a loss it appears that it came close to meeting the budget estimate. The budget for the new year is not expected to show a deficit because of our continually improving income in the last half of last year and a continued policy of keeping costs down and holding back on additional activities. The cash position of the association is sound and there is no need seen for borrowing to meet operation costs at any time.

The board of governors decided that with the closing of the books on June 30, 1969 all accounting would be changed from "Cash Basis" to "Accrual Basis". The auditor is in complete agreement with this change and is prepared to implement it at once.

It was also decided by the board of governors last February to sell some of the Franklin Mint stock donated to ANA by Joseph Segel, president of Franklin Mint. A sale of 200 shares was made and this resulted in a net return of $19,791 to the association. The reason for selling this stock was to provide the means for starting an endowment fund for financing the establishment and operation of a museum and to improve the library. With this good start it is expected that further donations to the endowment fund will soon follow.

HERBERT M. BERGEN
Chairman

Publications Committee

The Publications Committee, composed of Herbert M. Bergen, chairman; Virginia Culver, governor, and John J. Pittman, governor, desires to report that the association's two periodic publications, The Numismatist and the Club Bulletin, under the direction of editor Edward C. Rochette, were issued without any marked changes in appearance, format, and character of content from the preceding year.

Strenuous efforts were exerted by the editor to reduce printing costs of The Numismatist. These had some measure of success in the face of rising costs for all goods and services in a time of inflation. These efforts have led to some problems with our printer who finds himself in an economic squeeze. The committee has undertaken to make recommendations to the board of governors which, if adopted, are expected to solve these problems so that publication and quality of the magazine will not suffer unduly.

There have been some complaints about The Numismatist during the past year. In the effort to cut costs the printer has made changes and tried production short cuts which have at times resulted in small imperfections. But not all of the mishaps were the fault of either the editor or printer. As many members know, a large number of magazines arrived late with the April issue because the computer in Colorado Springs omitted 1285 names from the mailing list. From time to time there have also been delays in the Post Office for reasons that have been widely publicized.

Advertising in The Numismatist furnishes most of the income required to publish the magazine. Last year rates were increased to bring them in line with rates charged by other comparable numismatic journals. The full benefit of this raise was not realized until late in this fiscal year due to the many long-term contracts at the lower rates. Advertising volume has been steady and greater income can be expected in the coming year.

The Club Bulletin continued to receive good reception from the member clubs. The monthly issues run from 20 to 28 pages. It is expected that with more action by District Representatives more clubs will come to use the Club Bulletin for reports of their monthly club meetings. Perhaps an award to the club that sends in the best monthly meeting reports during a year will bring forth greater participation by member clubs.

HERBERT M. BERGEN
Chairman

The Young Numismatists Committee

During the fiscal year of 1968-69 as co-chairman of the Young Numismatists Committee, I have worked continuously with twenty-four committee members throughout the U.S.A. — each doing an excellent job organizing junior coin clubs and giving assistance to junior members.

Many committees have worked closely with local scout officials, boys clubs and other organizations to promote coin collecting.

Two hundred forty juniors have joined the association this fiscal year.

Five outstanding awards were offered: the ANA Junior Literary Award for the young collector; the Lewis M. Reagan Memorial Award for the best published manuscript; the Debbie Jane Gould Award for the best article in research on numismatics; the Outstanding Young Numismatist of ANA Award; and an award for adult leadership.

We have adult leadership available in many states and have answered approximately 900 letters from juniors in the past year. We have approximately 500 junior members in the association.

MRS. HAZEL LINDSTROM
Co-Chairman

Gift, Bequest and Endowment Committee

The Gift, Bequest and Endowment Fund committee is proud to report significant progress in all phases of its work. During the past year the library has received gifts of cash and numismatic literature valued at $33,401.02; and the museum, cash, coins, paper money, etc., valued at $44,012.04. Several other gifts have been received for special purposes. A gift of stock by Joseph Segel of the Franklin Mint has a market value of around $100,000. This and other gifts makes Joseph Segel the largest and most generous ANA benefactor.

We should mention that several members of our association have advised ANA officials that they have provided in their wills and codiciles for their collections to go to ANA upon their death.

Since the inception of the gift and bequest program in 1963, the generosity of ANA's members and friends have made possible and paid for our $270,000 home and headquarters building in Colorado Springs, for our $40,000 worth of necessary furnishings and equipment and for the acquisition of the beautiful building site upon which the home and headquarters are located with a value of $140,000 all of which is now held debt-free by your association.

In order to provide for the long term funding of your association's many services and activities, arrangements have been completed during the past year for the establishment of a permanent ANA endowment fund with the First National Bank of Colorado Springs as corporate trustee. The board of governors has designated the $100,000 gift of Joseph Segel as the starting nucleus of this endowment fund. Beginning this fall members and friends of the association may make a permanent and lasting gift or bequest to the endowment fund. The principal will then be held in trust and invested with the income made available as directed by the donor to support year after year ANA's (1) Library; (2) Museum; (3) Numismatic Education Programs; (4) Operating Fund or (5) other services and activities expressly authorized from time to time by the board of governors.

Your committee has also developed a working manual, containing procedures and many suggestions for the guidance of those charged with the administration of the gift, bequest and endowment fund program.

With this report your chairman winds up his work with this committee which he has headed since its inception in 1963. It has been a pleasant and challenging assignment and your chairman is proud of the part he has played in its many accomplishments.

CHARLES M. JOHNSON
Chairman

Numismatic Hall of Fame

The naming of candidates for enshrinement in the Numismatic Hall of Fame was inaugurated last fall when ANA members made a total of eighty-three nominations for thirty-seven qualified candidates for consideration.

This roster of candidates, listing their numismatic accomplishments, was approved by the board of governors and submitted to the panel of twenty-five electors this spring. The vote of the electors has been tallied by our CPA firm and results of the first election announced at the convention banquet. All candidates who have received thirteen or more votes are to be considered elected and will be enshrined in the Numismatic Hall of Fame.

JACK W. OGILVIE
Chairman

Library Committee

The past year has been a very busy one at your association's library. As reported by the Gift, Bequest and Endowment Fund committee, the library has received gifts of cash and numismatic literature valued at $33,401.02. Included in these gifts was a substantial amount of numismatic literature from the Freeman, Sheldon, Hathway, Boraker and Bradfield libraries. The time-consuming work of sorting and cataloguing the several hundred cartons of books so received has been completed and the welcome titles are in use on our library shelves. Many new and out-of-print titles were also purchased and added to the library at a cost of $1,144.63.

During the year our mail order library loaned 1865 titles to 646 borrowers in every section of the country, in response to specific requests and general inquiries for material on a wide variety of subjects. The librarian and staff have also answered countless, numismatic questions and inquiries by correspondence. Three books in preparation were researched by their authors at the library. Since the headquarters was established and the library has become known, the number of persons availing themselves of its use by mail and visitation has steadily increased.

Our principal goal for the present is to complete the cataloguing of the library and to then publish a new library catalogue. For this work we have purchased a library card catalogue file, library card stock for Xeroxing and Library of Congress cards. Considerable work has also been done in up-dating and binding our periodicals. Many worn and damaged books have been repaired and rebound and a regular book binding procedure established.

The sale by the library of back issues of The Numismatist and reprints of special articles, together with the four volumes of the Selections from The Numismatist, donated by the Whitman Publishing Company, continues at a lively pace.

The most pressing need at your association's library is for additional funds to pay for the work of cataloguing, developing and operating our library and thus passing on to inquiring collectors and numismatists our rich heritage of numismatic knowledge and information. This is one of the most significant undertakings of your association for the advancement and enjoyment of numismatics. You can help by mailing a check to your association earmarked for the library or the library endowment fund.

CHARLES M. JOHNSON
Chairman

Robberies, Theft and Rewards

The balance as of June 20, 1968 was $4,802.75 — to which has been added the interest earnings of $241.09. By authority of the board a percentage of the convention bourse table fee from each dealer has been allocated to the fund. During the year $5,900.00 has been added from 1967 and 1968 conventions. Very recently $3,175.00 has been credited from advance reservations for 1969.

The board disbursed $1,055.52 as a reward in an earlier case under circumstances for which the fund was established. Also $204.40 was used to purchase reward labels — window sticker type — for ANA member dealers. This "cost" was paid from the interest income.

As of June 30, 1969 the balance of the fund is $12,858.82. The deposit has been transferred to the association's account in the Denver United States National Bank in Colorado, where interest is computed on a daily basis.

The fund is to be used to pay as a reward to the person submitting evidence to the ANA executive director which leads to the arrest and conviction of anyone committing a burglary, theft or robbery of numismatic items owned by an ANA member.

Museum Committee

During the past year your museum committee, composed of Vernon L. Brown, O. H. Dodson, Charles R. Hoskins, Dr. V. Clain Stefanelli and Grover Criswell, with the help of your association's treasurer, William C. Henderson, after considerable study and discussion, made a number of written suggestions and recommendations for developing the money museum. These recommendations were adopted by the board of governors and the executive director was instructed to proceed with the development work, and to employ an administrative assistant when funds are available for his salary.

During the year the United States, Bureau of Engraving and Printing prepared and placed on exhibit a fabulous display of paper money, containing many specimens direct from the Bureau which told and illustrated the story of our country's paper money. Another display prepared by our treasurer, William C. Henderson, tells the story of early pioneer and token money in Colorado. As the money museum grows we hope to have an ever changing flow of new and varied exhibits from many sources; such as, the best in show and prize winning exhibits at our national conventions and regional shows; loan exhibits from other money museums, and exhibits of collections given to the museum by ANA members and friends.

As reported by the Gift Bequest and Endowment Fund committee, the museum has received gifts of cash, coins, paper money, etc. for the museum valued at $44,012.04 during the past year. Much of this material remains to be processed and catalogued.

With its new home and headquarters, your museum committee wishes to remind everyone that your association now has proper vault and museum space to receive, house and display numismatic collections, and will welcome gifts and bequests from those who want to find a permanent home for their cherished collections. You may contact the ANA executive director regarding arrangements. With the establishment of ANA's endowment fund, you may also provide a permanent fund, the income from which will be used to maintain and add to your collection over the years. What finer memorial can anyone leave to mark his earthly existence and for the enjoyment of his fellow men than his personal collection!

Try to visit the ANA headquarters on your next trip and see the library, museum and other splendid facilities of your association, all dedicated to the advancement and enjoyment of numismatics.

Display Cases

The cases arrived at the ANA Headquarters building, from San Diego, in fine condition. Adna G. Wilde had the custodian check the shippers and cases. A few cases were found with broken glass and some with minor repairs to be made. These will be repaired by me at the hotel in Philadelphia.

I met with Mr. Wilde last December and plans were made to deliver the keys and repair kit to Mr. Werner in Philadelphia, in May.

Five new locks were purchased for the grey exhibit cases at a cost of $12.15.

Mr. Wilde will ship the cases to the Merchants Warehouse in Philadelphia on July 18, 1969 and they should arrive on July 31, 1969.

Glass and new locks will be replaced and ready on August 8, 1969.

Audio-Visual Education Committee

The Audio-Visual Education Committee is pleased to report a very active year. The number of visual education programs presented was 978, an increase of 138 showings over the previous year. The committee considers this activity to be one of the worthwhile services of the ANA to member clubs. The 34 different slide sets and two 16mm. films can be used as the main theme or as background material for club program. They are educational and entertaining and are available to ANA member clubs at no cost except the slight shipping charges.

The following Audio-Visual Education programs were shown most frequently during the past year:

	Showings
1) 16mm. Film, "A Trip Through the Denver Mint"	92
2) Slide Set No. 2, "Types of Commemorative Half Dollars"	73
3) Slide Set No. 17, "Coins With Special Significance"	68
4) Slide Set No. 4A, "U.S. Types, Quarters to Silver Dollars"	63
5) 16mm. Film, "Money Minters of Canada"	61
6) Slide Set No. 3A, "U.S. Copper Coin Types"	61
7) Slide Set No. 1, "Coins of Colonial America"	60

Educational material on U. S. coins and paper money continued to be the most popular by far.

Affiliated clubs throughout the 50 U.S. states and in foreign areas borrowed audio-visual education material. Leading states in the number of showing during the past year were:

1) California	72
2) Illinois	58
3) New Jersey	56
4) New York	56
5) Ohio	52

The above figures do not reflect all the showings of ANA audio-visual material, since ANA member clubs in Southern California and in Texas could borrow slide sets from regional ANA organizations, the Numismatic Association of Southern California and the Texas Numismatic Association. (These slide sets are to be used only by ANA member clubs of these two regional organizations.)

During the past year, the following slide sets were developed and will be available in the fall of 1969 for use by ANA member clubs:

- 1) The Milled Coinage of England, 1561-1661
- 2) American Game Counters
- 3) Imperial Russian Copper Coinage
- 4) World Trade Dollars

Also during the past year, five more prints of the 16mm. movie, "A Trip Through the Denver Mint," were made, which means a total of 14 copies of this popular film. At present we have 10 copies of the 16mm. movie "Money Minters of Canada," which is also shown frequently. There are a total of 110 copies of the 34 different slide sets, not including the 5 new slide sets listed above. The listing of these slide sets is available from ANA Headquarters, Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colo., 80901.

This report gives your Audio-Visual Education Committee Chairman the opportunity to thank all members of the committee, as well as the executive director and his staff for their help and cooperation. Again we thank the Sidney Printing and Publishing Company for making money available for the support of the ANA Audio-Visual Education program.

BONI Committee

During 1968-69 members of the BONI Committee (Bureau of Numismatic Identification and Authentication) continued their efforts to set up a coin authentication service. A goal of $50,000 has been set and up to the present time, slightly more than $19,000 has been raised. Contributions toward this goal may be made to the American Numismatic Authentication Trust through trustees: A. Kosoff, P.O. Box 456, Encino, Calif. 91316; V. Hancock, P.O. Box 936, Bellaire, Texas 77402; or J. J. Pittman, 4 Acton St., Rochester, N.Y. 14615. These three trustees are BONI committee members and are giving their time and effort without any remuneration. All donations, large or small, are welcome and the full amount of each contribution is credited toward the Trust. All expenses relating to the raising of the $50,000 are being met by the three trustees. If the goal is not reached within a reasonable time, all donations will be returned in full to the donors.

During the past year, members of the BONI committee participated in numerous educational forums and lectures, bringing to the attention of collectors the increased prevalence of counterfeit and altered date coins. The monthly article entitled "Featuring Fakes," by committee member Virgil Hancock, has continued to be published in The Numismatist. These monthly articles are of interest and value to many collectors and have stimulated further study of counterfeit numismatics items.

The Organization of International Numismatists Committee

As a committee of one, I maintained contact with various members of the OIN (Organization of International Numismatists), including Abe Kosoff, the OIN liaison to the ANA. The OIN, a member section of the ANA since 1967, has given valuable support to the ANA by providing educational forums at many coin shows, including an interesting program at the 1968 ANA Convention in San Diego and also at the CNA Convention in Calgary, Alberta. The OIN will offer a program at the 1969 ANA Convention in Philadelphia. Many of the over 500 members of the OIN are members of the ANA and it is hoped that all members of the OIN will become ANA members.

During the past year, I have presented OIN's collector activities at various local, state and regional numismatic shows. The OIN has also been one of the strong supporters of the ANA projected authentication service. OIN members have personally contributed to the Authentication Trust Fund and have helped raise funds for the authentication trust.

The Exhibits Committee

At the 1968 ANA convention, the Exhibits Committee sponsored an Exhibit Judging Forum. The six panel members discussed the ANA Guidelines for Judging Numismatic Exhibits. The program was very well attended and many helpful comments and suggestions were received. A similar forum is planned for the 1969 ANA Convention. During the past year, the Guidelines for Judging Numismatic Exhibits, which were used in 1968, were reviewed by members of the Exhibits Committee in the interest of brevity and clarity.

Local Co-Ordinating Committee

This committee continues to function as a unique one within our association, in that its membership consists of only one person, the chairman. As previously stated, should the necessity arise, it can be expanded to include hundreds of local, civic-minded business men and citizens.

The primary function of this committee is to assist our executive director, editor and personnel of our headquarters in any way possible — this I have attempted to do during the past year. Due to the outstanding capabilities of our executive director and editor, the services of this committee has been of a minor nature. The association is fortunate to have executives such as Adna G. Wilde, Jr. and Edward C. Rochette administering its affairs. Locally, the association now enjoys an excellent reputation and has projected a most acceptable image.

WILLIAM C. HENDERSON
Chairman

Numismatic Terms Standardization Committee

A very significant forward step was achieved this year by the committee when the board of governors gave approval to ask numismatic publications to subscribe to the glossary of numismatic terms and definitions as printed. Those subscribing publications can be found listed in the second edition of the terms booklet which is hot off the press.

The size and geographical separation of this committee preclude meetings for deliberation and thus all work must be carried on by correspondence. This year each member was assigned a letter or two of the alphabet for added terms and definitions to be included in the second printing. These additions were circulated to each member for corrections, criticisms, and suggestions. The end result of all those participating members can be found in the second printing.

I wish to personally thank those members of the committee who have contributed their time and knowledge to this important committee of the ANA. Now that we have achieved a few beginning goals, we must continue our progress to update, revise, and add new definitions each year.

Medals and Outstanding Sculptor of the Year

Our association was indeed fortunate this year in having Frank Gasparro, chief engraver of the United States Mint in Philadelphia, design our annual convention medal. Mr. Gasparro was the winner of the Outstanding Sculptor of the Year Award in 1968. This year's convention medal is truly one of the most outstanding. The design combines historic Philadelphia tradition with the official opening of the new United States Mint. The medals and badges were struck by the Medallic Art Company.

The Philadelphia medals committee has worked diligently and is presenting a new innovation this year. A smaller size convention badge will be available for the ladies. The convention medal set featuring a silver and a bronze medal this year will also include the miniature medal.

One of the pleasant duties of this committee is to choose the outstanding sculptor of the year for the gold medal presented by the Franklin Mint. Your chairman solicited recommendations from various people who are knowledgeable in the sculptoring field in order that the slate of candidates would truly represent outstanding artists from a wide horizon. The committee consisting of Alva B. Christensen, Oscar H. Dodson, Arthur Sipe, and Virginia Culver made their selection by ballot.

Farran Zerbe Award and Medal of Merit Committee

This committee is charged with recommending to the Board of Governors the recipients for the Farran Zerbe Memorial Award and the Medal of Merit to be presented at the 1969 convention. As is customary, its business was conducted solely by correspondence.

After receiving nominations for each award from committee members, the chairman prepared a resume of each candidate's numismatic history, activities and accomplishments. These were sent to the seven committee members for a final vote. While it is not proper to give details in this report, it was gratifying that the voting produced the basis for a decisive report to the Board, which was adopted at its mid-February meeting.

The seven members of the committee, each a past recipient of both awards, were: Elston G. Bradfield, John S. Davenport, Oscar H. Dodson, J. Douglas Ferguson, John F. Lhotka, Jr., Jack W. Ogilvie and Louis S. Werner.

GLENN B. SMEDLEY

Bourse Selection Committee

There were 122 tables available in the bourse area. For these limited spaces, we received 161 applications prior to the deadline of January 15, 1969. These applications were submitted to the board of governors at the February meeting in Colorado Springs and the 122 selected. All other individuals were notified they were not successful applicants, but were informed that in the event of a cancellation some would receive a table.

Unfortunately, after the deadline of January 15, 1969, thirteen additional applications were received, and they were advised their applications had not been submitted before the deadline. Some applications were received, usually by phone, several months after the selections had been made.

The competition for bourse spaces at ANA's Anniversary conventions has been increasing over the years. The board of governors looks favorably on individuals who promote the association, and one of the greatest supports is advertising in The Numismatist. All dealers, whether selected or not for the Philadelphia Convention, received a letter from the Bourse Selection Committee outlining methods of selection.

Application cards for bourse spaces at the 79th convention in St. Louis in 1970 will be available for distribution in Philadelphia. Each dealer having space will receive one of these Request for Application cards in his registration kit. Members are invited to watch the notices in the October, November and December, 1969 issues of The Numismatist with reference to bourse space in St. Louis.

Personnel Committee

The Personnel Committee, a special committee, consisting of Herbert M. Bergen, chairman; Don Sherer, second vice-president; and William C. Henderson, treasurer; was appointed in 1967 to take charge of the search for a new executive director. This was accomplished with the selection and appointment of Adna G. Wilde, Jr. in August, 1968. Since that time, without assignment of further duties, this committee has been inactive and now requests that it be discharged.

HERBERT M. BERGEN
Chairman

District Representative and Club Program Committee

This is only the second year of this committee's existence. Many of the District Representatives of last year were reappointed but, due to a few declining and an increase in the number of districts from 18 to 33, a number are serving for the first time. Care was taken in making appointments so that the last was not made until February 23. The chairman did not ask each D. R. to make a report so cannot make a full and detailed summary of their efforts and accomplishments.

While final figures are not available as this report is written, the membership report elsewhere in this booklet will show a net increase of some 1.5% over a year ago. The approximately 120 new members sponsored by the D. Rs. during the year helped substantially in achieving this modest growth. Undoubtedly the activities of the D. Rs. helped in signing up other members but this cannot be evaluated. At its mid-February meeting the board authorized a credit of $1 to member clubs for each new A.N.A. member they signed up. The results are to be evaluated as of August 1, but a check of the listing of new members in The Numismatist indicates clearly that clubs are participating in this plan.

For the information of members who peruse the accountant's report in this booklet (everyone should), the expense item for club program includes the cost of the monthly Club Bulletin and that of the new membership brochure. Since the latter is primarily for use in soliciting new members, it is mentioned more fully in the Membership Committee report herein.

The committee chairman wrote six letters containing news, information and suggestions that were sent to all D. Rs. Letterheads for their use and supplies of the new membership brochure-application were sent to them in March. Several A.N.A. members reported problems to D. Rs. and were given assistance with them.

The activities of this committee are beneficial to the Association but it cannot now and probably never will be able to report specific accomplishments of spectacular magnitude. It is recommended that the committee be continued and be given encouragement and support by the Board of Governors. The November 1968 and April 1969 Club Bulletins combined carried a complete list of the names and addresses of the District Representatives.

GLENN B. SMEDLEY
Chairman

Papers Committee

This committee's only activity during the year was the composition of an article titled "So You Want to Write a Numismatic Article," which was published in the May issue of The Numismatist. It gave tips on reporting numismatic events and on writing articles which can be helpful to any writer who reads and observes them.

Although intended for possible publication in other numismatic media, the committee is not aware of its appearance in any such as of the date of this report's submission. In addition to the chairman, the committee members were Charles R. Hoskins of Detroit, Mich. and Mrs. Margo Russell of Sidney, Ohio.

GLENN B. SMEDLEY

Election Procedures Committee

The Election Procedures Committee was a special committee appointed in 1968 to study and prepare a report with recommendations for revision of the procedures for electing officers and board members. The three members of this committee were Herbert M. Bergen, chairman; Virginia Culver, governor; and George D. Hatie, governor and legal counsel.

A first report was made to the Board of Governors in August, 1968. In this report it was recommended that the rules for electing officers and board members be the same as the rules in effect at the preceding election. These recommendations were adopted and the by-laws were changed accordingly.

When that report was made the committee did not have time to complete a study of proposals for electing governors by districts. More time was granted to study these proposals. The result is that it will recommend no action be taken now because none of the proposals were judged to be practical or feasible.

Acting on numerous complaints the committee gave serious attention to the present rules that regulate candidate qualifications and the nomination of candidates. This resulted in forming recommendations for changes in the existing rules and by-laws covering these subjects. Announcement of board action on these recommendations will be made after the meeting in Philadelphia.

St. Louis "Rolling" Along for 1970

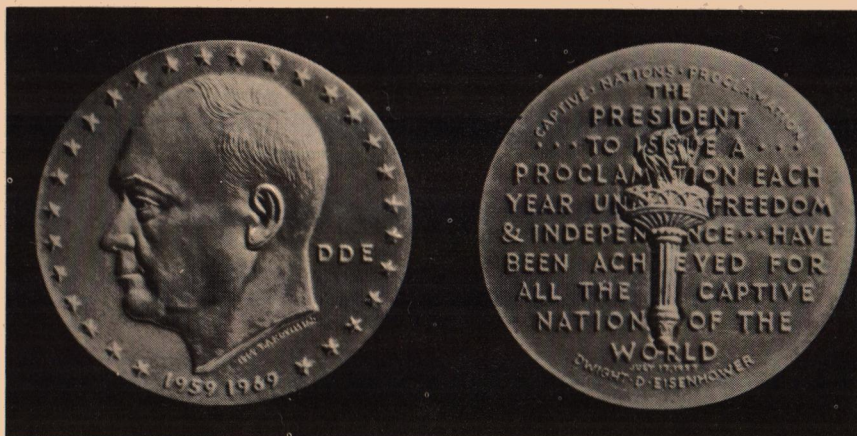

An enthusiastic contingent from the Missouri Numismatic Society of St. Louis, host club for the 1970 ANA convention, was present at the Philadelphia gathering to extend an early welcome to next year's conclave in the Gateway City.

Headed by general chairman David Cooper, the group distributed several thousand elongated cents especially struck in commemoration of the occasion, plus reams of chamber of commerce materials extolling the merits of their city.

Cooper, who currently serves as president of MNS, has been chairman of several successful coin festivals staged by his organization. He is presently setting up numerous committees to insure that the 1970 convention will be a memorable occasion for all numismatists who attend.

Captive Nations Week Commemorated

Dwight D. Eisenhower, the first president to proclaim the observance of Captive Nations Week, is portrayed on a special commemorative medal to mark the tenth anniversary of the proclamation. The medal, struck in bronze and silver by Medallie Art Company, was designed by Trygve Rovelstad and shows Ike surrounded by 28 stars, one for each captive nation. Further information as to price and availability write Captive Nations Medal Committee, 4146 North Elston Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60618.

3rd edition Current Coins of the World!

When Current Coins of the World by R. S. Yeoman was first published several years ago it was warmly received by collectors because it filled a pressing need with authority. It was immediately accepted as the standard reference.

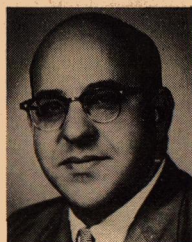

It had hardly settled in its rightful place on the bookshelf, however, when rapid world changes made another edition a necessity. And now the definitive 3rd edition has appeared. All new issues have been included, and worldwide coin valuations since 1945 have been updated.

Popular interest has prompted two additional sections: modern proof sets and a special listing of controversial issues and those of uncertain status.

IT'S TAKEN US 66 YEARS TO BECOME NUMISMATISTS!

...not because we're slow
but because we're careful!

HARMER, ROOKE has been an internationally known name in philately since 1903. Our reputation for expertise and professional integrity is impeccable. We're careful! Careful with material entrusted to us for auction, appraisal or direct sale. Careful to make the descriptions in our auction catalogs meticulously accurate. With a reputation as good as ours, we're extremely careful not to hurt it.

Now, HARMER, ROOKE NUMISMATISTS, Ltd. brings to the numismatic world the same expertise and integrity under the guidance of D. Paul Taxay, internationally known numismatist, author of widely acclaimed numismatic texts and former Curator of The Chase Manhattan Bank's Money Museum, and Wm. Thomas Antton, Jr. With the assistance of Donald D'Amato we've assembled an incomparable staff of numismatic experts. To authenticate questionable material through X-Ray Spectroscopy & Defraction and to make further analysis of metal, paper and ink, a $75,000 electronic laboratory (the only one of its kind in the world), is maintained at our New York headquarters.

(At present, material is not being accepted for authentication, from the general public. Prior announcement will be made when these unique facilities are available for public use.)

We're ready!...without fear of hurting our great reputation. Whether buying or selling...you'll enjoy dealing with HARMER, ROOKE.

The Official 1770-1970 Old Monterey Bicentennial Commemorative Medallion

HERE IS A BEAUTIFULLY DESIGNED MEDAL commemorating the 1770 founding of the colony of Monterey, by Spain. Monterey Bay was described as early as 1542 by the Spanish explorer Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo. Although Spain's treasure galleons from the Orient used Monterey as a supply port for the next 200 years or more, it was not until 1770 that a combined land and sea expedition met on the shores of Monterey's blue bay to establish a permanent settlement.

The leaders of the sea and land expeditions, respectively, were Father Junipero Serra and Captain Gaspar de Portola. These are the two heads portrayed at the top of the Monterey medal. The others are those of an early California Indian, a Spanish senorita, and an early Yankee settler. The reverse is a relief showing Father Serra's home mission, San Carlos de Borromeo, in nearby Carmel.

These two proof patterns, submitted by the British Hong-kong mint, rejected by the Chinese Central Government, are impressive coins, 4 mm thick, 38 mm diameter, ultra-sharp engraving.

As far as is known, only three other sets exist.

If these were USA coins, the price would be at least $ 50,000 each, instead of only $ 2,550 each. From my prize-winning "trade coins" collection, this offer literally is the collector's chance of a lifetime !

PALLADIUM

TONGA

The 1967 Brilliant Uncirculated set of 3 Palladium coins, the Hau, ½ Hau, ¼ Hau, in their official presentation case represent the first Palladium coins struck in history. Moreover, only 1500 were struck making this issue a prime investment for the sophisticated collector. Palladium, as you may know, is like gold and platinum in terms of being impervious to the elements. Of interest also is the fact that the three coins, heavy pieces, contain almost 4 Troy ounces of Palladium giving them a billion value approaching $200.00. The encased set—SPECIAL 315.00

Eliminate The Middle Man SELL YOUR COINS DIRECT TO ME

WHY?

Because I have an immediate sale for almost any type of Numismatic Material... whether rare gold or common bags and rolls. Chances are, if you sold your coins to almost anyone else in the past five years, all, or at least part of them, ended up in my hands here in Dallas, Texas.

WHY?

Because my mailing list, made up solely of established customers, numbers over 150,000 active buyers. This represents the largest single buying force in Numismatics today. If you decide to sell, write me, or better yet call me. If your collection merits, I, or a member of my experienced staff can be in your city within 24 hours. In any case you will receive a prompt and courteous reply to your inquiry. Perhaps you haven't yet heard of us and there's a valid reason. I have built the largest Retail Coin Business in the World by placing advertisements in national publications... TV Guide, House and Garden, Better Homes and Gardens, Popular Science, Sports Afield and a dozen other magazines... rather than in numismatic periodicals, hoping to induce others to take up the hobby you and I enjoy so much.

If you have numismatic material for sale, please contact me. This is the best time of all!

Retard Tarnish From These 3 Major Sources

Handling, even with greatest care, leaves silver-blackening acids on coin and medal surfaces.

Atmospheric impurities can quickly darken seemingly well-protected pieces.

Storage containers that seem "safe" — often contain tarnish-producing elements.

Double View Drawers and Cabinets combine the preservation techniques employed universally in Museums with the traditional means of storing valuable numismatic material . . . adding the completely new ingredient of NO-TOUCH TOTAL VISUAL ENJOYMENT of Obverse and Reverse designs.

PUT THEM TOGETHER AND THEY SIGNIFY . . . Capital Plastics newest and extremely practical coin holder.

Priced at $17.75

The size, 8" x 14" is perfect to place into the safety box! BVD HOLDERS are made to hold series that have been completed, so once you place your set in the holder, you need never reopen it. This adds to the permanence of your unit as the holders do NOT BECOME OBSOLETE.

Each holder is designed to serve as a display case with symmetrical lettering and overall compatible appearance. They are available in Black, White, Red, Green or Blue and fully imprinted to identify each set.

Among the current titles in stock are Lincolns dating from 1909-1934-D, 1935-1958-D, the Buffalo Nickel, Mercury Dime, Franklin, Walking Liberty, Commemoratives, Peace and Morgan Dollar Holders.

Our BVD holders protect against "underwear," over wear and any kind of wear. They give secure protection against fingerprints, blemishes and if you place one in a BANK VAULT DRAWER you have added security from "sticky" moisture in the air . . . and "sticky fingers".

THE BERMUDA COIN DEALER'S ASSOCIATION Is Proud To Offer

THE NEW DECIMAL COINAGE OF BERMUDA

During the month of October, the Bermuda Government as part of its decimalization program, is releasing a Mint Set containing the five coins that will serve as coinage for the Islands of Bermuda after February 1st, 1970. The denominations of the coins are fifty-cents, twenty-five cents, ten cents, five cents (all cupro-nickel) and a one cent copper piece. The obverse shows the head of Queen Elizabeth II while the obverse of each coin depicts a typically Bermuda motif varying from Bermuda's famous "Longtail" to the well-known "Hog" found on Bermuda's Hog Money many years ago.

The Mint Set is encased in a double-fold Royal Blue crested wallet similar to that used by the British Government for their Decimal Sets. The face value of the set is .91c equal according to present monetary standards to .91c US. On D-Day in February 1970, the Government plans to issue a "short" proof set containing a dollar-size coin of .800 fine silver in a plush case and a "long" proof set containing the dollar and a twenty dollar gold piece.

The Bermuda Coin Dealer's Association are now offering the Mint Set at the prices shown below. For those who also wish the "short" proof set, the Association is accepting a deposit of five dollars for each set reserved. Cheques or Money Orders should be made payable to the Bermuda Coin Dealer's Association and mailed to the address below. All prices include postage and insurance.

1-5	Mint Sets	$3.25 each	26-50	Mint Sets	$2.60 each
6-25	Mint Sets	$2.85 each	51-100	Mint Sets	$2.50 each

HAPPY HUNTING!

That is the way a real collector should feel about his collection. The thrill is in the search, and when a scarce piece is obtained, he goes on from there, always hunting for something not yet attained. In that way, there is always the thrill of the chase, and he is never bored with his hobby.

Now that fall is here and colder evenings invite indoor relaxation, it is time to resume the search and perhaps to use any help you can get in obtaining what you want. If you collect modern foreign, my stock is one of the best. No dealer has everything and I am no exception, but I do think a collector should try my price list first, and what he does not find there, he can look for elsewhere. This list is free for the asking. If you have already seen it, perhaps you should have another look!

If a dealer, please write on letterhead for my large wholesale list; not available to collectors.
